International Yoga Day Celebration

21.06.2024

The three NSS units of Raja Rammohun Roy Mahavidyalaya have celebrated the International Yoga Day on 21.06.2024 as per the directive and the guidelines received from the MHRD of Government of India and our affiliating University i.e. The University of Burdwan. The main motto of celebrating the International Yoga Day is to promote yoga among the students, faculty members and the Non-teaching staffs. Through this celebration of International Yoga Day the three NSS units had tried to spread awareness about the benefits of yoga such as maintaining healthy body, managing stress and also the peace of mind.

The event for International Yoga Day was planned involving the Assistant Professor of Physical Education as Yoga Instructor; all the three Programme officers of the NSS and the required logistics were also kept for this yoga training on the International Yoga Day. All the volunteers of the NSS, the cadets of the NCC, faculty members and the Non-teaching staffs were also present to get the yoga training.

The yoga training programme on the occasion of IDY 2024 was initiated with a short opening ceremony and a welcome speech by the Principal of the college emphasizing the importance of yoga in daily life. The Programme officer of NSS Unit-I, Basira Parvin shared the role of India in spreading the Importance of yoga in our everyday life to the world and also the importance of it. Thereafter the Yoga Instructor and the Programme officer of NSS Unit-2 Dr. Selim Babu had guided all of us to practice pranayams and few yoga asanas as per the common yoga protocol.

The International Yoga Day for the year 2024 was celebrated successfully. Conducting this event for the International Yoga Day was possible by the collective effort of the NSS Programme officers of the three NSS units, the volunteers and all the participants. Through this event the NSS units have tried to spread the message of benefits of yoga in daily life.
