

Reasonable Accommodations for Students with Disabilities

We offer the following reasonable accommodations:

- Academic Accommodations- Extra time for exams: Students with disabilities may be granted extra time to complete exams.
  - Accessible study materials: Study materials, large print, or digital formats, may be provided upon request.
  - Assistive technology: Students may use assistive technology, such as text-to-speech software or screen readers, during exams and classes.
- Physical Accommodations- Accessible classrooms: Classrooms are designed to be accessible for students with mobility impairments.
  - Ramps and wheelchairs: Ramps and wheelchairs are available for students with mobility impairments.
  - Accessible washrooms: Washrooms are designed to be accessible for students with disabilities.
- Support Services- Counselling services: Counselling services are available to support students with disabilities.
  - Student support groups: Student support groups are available for students with disabilities.
- Other Accommodations- Flexible attendance: Students with disabilities may be granted flexible attendance arrangements.
  - Modified curriculum: The curriculum may be modified to accommodate students with disabilities.
  - Alternative assessments: Alternative assessments, such as oral exams or presentations, may be offered to students with disabilities.